GUERIN CATHOLIC NAMED NOBLESVILLE'S BEST NEW CONSTRUCTION BTGHS Administration, Eden Enterprises honored at luncheon

NOBLESVILLE — Blessed Theodore Guerin High School was given the 2004 Enterprise Award for “Best New Construction”, announced the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon held on Friday, October 8 at the Arbortorium. Keith Marsh, principal, as well as representatives from Eden Enterprise, Inc. were present to accept the award.

“It is exciting to be honored as the best new construction, but the real credit goes to Scott Schutz and Eden Enterprises who were the construction managers for the building,” said Marsh. “They are an outstanding company to be working for our high school.”

Guerin Catholic’s 70-acre campus lies in the heart of rapidly-growing Hamilton County. The campus offers amenities such as music labs, a blackbox theatre, 200-seat chapel, 3,000-seat gymnasium, full-service media center and breakout classrooms for students. The other finalists for the award were the Noblesville Medical Arts building and Trio di Tuscanos.

“To be recognized by the Noblesville community is fantastic,” Marsh added. “We will do our part to be outstanding citizens in the Noblesville community and have already started giving back through various community service projects.”
