Theology 1, 2, 3, 4 - Introduction to Scripture

Dates: Available June 14 - July 30

Structure: Online

Offered: Sophomores and Juniors (credit recovery only)

Instructor: Miss LaCoy

This is a BLENDED course intended only for students needing to recover credit for Theology 1, 2, 3, or 4.

Reading material, discussion boards, quizzes and tests will all be conducted through Canvas. There will be FOUR classroom days and weekly deadlines for coursework.

The purpose of this course is to serve as an overview of Theology 1, 2, 3, and 4. The purpose of this course is to give an overview of Sacred Scripture & Salvation History, the nature of the Trinity, the Paschal Mystery and an introduction into Church history. Due to its nature to review many aspects of Theology courses, there will be a specific focus on Salvation History and typology, the student will learn how the Redemption won for us by Christ is prefigured in Old Testament persons, events, and things. There will also include a special emphasis on the Paschal Mystery as the act of Jesus Christ's saving mission continued throughout history. The course gives an overview of the major beliefs that are at the heart of the Faith, with an emphasis on the existence and Revelation of God, the Bible and the relationship between the Old and New Testaments, the Person of Jesus Christ and the Paschal Mystery, and the role of grace in the believer's response of holiness to God's Revelation by the moral life and prayer.

Government (1 credit)

Dates: Available June 7-July 28

Structure: Online

Offered: Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors

Instructor: Mrs. Neman

This is an ONLINE course. Reading material, videos, discussion boards, quizzes and tests will all be conducted through Canvas. There is no required text for this course; all reading materials will be included in canvas. This class will meet at Guerin Catholic High School for one (1) afternoon session on June 4th at 2:00pm after final exams for an introduction to Canvas, online learning and class discussion. This is a mandatory meeting and the only meeting that will take place at school. It is important for students to attend this meeting as we will be reviewing and discussing the material, pacing and setup for the course.

United States Government provides a framework for understanding the nature and importance of responsible civic participation and for learning the rights and responsibilities of individuals in a constitutional democracy. The course enables students to explore the historic origins and evolution of political philosophies into contemporary political and legal systems. Constitutional structure and processes of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the national, state, and local levels of government are examined. Students learn to demonstrate an understanding of the governmental structures of the United States and other political systems, as well as the relationship of American government to world affairs. They learn to understand their ability to influence policies and decisions as individuals and in groups. Related learning experiences in the school and community enable students to learn how to participate effectively in the political process.

Students may earn an Honors credit with the completion of additional research writings.

Instructor: Mrs. Wagoner

Students taking Introduction to Two-Dimensional/Three-Dimensional Art engage in sequential learning experiences that encompass art history, art criticism, aesthetics, and art production that lead to the creation of high quality drawn, painted, and high quality 3D works of art. In addition to students experimenting with a wide range of mediums, they will reflect upon the outcomes of those experiences, explore historical connections, find direct correlation to other disciplines, and explore career options in visual art. Students will also explore additional materials and subject matter through a sketchbook.

The only required materials for the class each day include the student's computer and a 9" x 12" sketchbook. No textbook or additional art materials will be required.

A minimum of 15 registered students will be required to offer this course.

A maximum of 24 students will be permitted to register for this class.

Personal Financial Responsibility (1 Credit)

Dates: Available June 7 - June 30

Structure: Online

Offered: Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors

Instructor: Ms. Niccum

Personal Financial Responsibility addresses the identification and management of personal financial resources to meet the financial needs and wants of individuals and families, considering a broad range of economic, social, cultural, technological, environmental, and maintenance factors. This course helps students build skills in financial responsibility and decision making; analyze personal standards, needs, wants and goals; identify sources of income, saving and investing; understanding banking, budgeting, record-keeping and managing risk, insurance and credit card debt. Scripture and prayerful reflection are integrated throughout the course. This course is 100% online; and therefore, we will not have any designated class time. All materials for this class can be found on Canvas; no textbook is required.

Principles of Marketing (1 Credit)

Dates: Available June 7 - June 30

Structure: Online

Offered: Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors

Instructor: Ms. Niccum

Principles of Marketing provides a basic introduction to the scope and importance of marketing in the global economy. Emphasis is placed on oral and written communications, mathematical applications, problem-solving, and critical thinking skills as they relate to advertising/promotion/selling, distribution, financing, marketing information management, pricing, and product/service management. Scripture and prayerful reflection are integrated throughout the course. This course is 100% online; and therefore, we will not have any designated class time. All materials for this class can be found on Canvas; no textbook is required.

Summer Internship on the School Farm—Farming and Food Justice (1 Credit)

Dates: Between June 7 - August 8, students sign-up for 60 farm hours

Structure: Blended (Primarily on-site learning, with some online supplemental materials)

Offered: Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors

Instructor: Mr. Haselhorst

St. Isidore Farm, Guerin Catholic's school farm business, invites students and the community into ecological education, sustainable food systems, and food justice. The business grows and sells fresh, local, sustainably-grown produce to its Veggie Box customers, as well as at a local farmers market. Student interns can expect to do hands-on farm work while learning the theological, ecological, scientific, and business basics that underlie running a small vegetable farm. The internship is offered to any student who wants to add to his or her range of experiences and skills. It also tends to produce great material for college applications and scholarship essays.

No gardening experience necessary.

A maximum of 15 students will be permitted to register for this class.
